

Quality Policy

Jesmonite Limited is passionate about providing exceptional product quality and service.

Jesmonite Limited and its employees are committed to continued success and growth whilst always maintaining its focus of putting our customers' needs first within its strategy to achieving this goal.

Through our quality management system and using ISO9001:2015 as a core guide, we will measure and review our performance against our set of key objectives with the aim of continued improvements. We aim to deliver satisfaction in a framework expected of a caring supplier who, together with the support of its stakeholders, meet all our statutory, regulatory and customer requirements.